Defendant.)

Offense charged:

Possession of Stolen Mail

Date of Detention Hearing: June 17, 2005

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(1) Defendant is charged by Complaint with unlawful possession of approximately 100 pieces of stolen mail.

(2) Defendant has a criminal history that includes felonies such as possession of stolen property, forgery, identity theft, VUCSA, theft, criminal trespass and possession of a controlled

01 substance without prescription. Her record includes numerous failures to appear for hearings.
02 She has an outstanding, extraditable warrant from Everett Municipal Court for failure to appear 03 for a hearing. She was terminated from King County drug court for failing to pay restitution. She 04 was terminated from drug treatment while in prison due to too many absences, which she 05 attributes to being required to attend a number of court appearances related to ongoing cases.

06 (3) Defendant admits to a substance abuse problem including alcohol abuse at an early
07 age, marijuana use and a daily methamphetamine habit until placed into custody in November 08 2004.

09 (4) Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance based on failing to appear for court
10 numerous times, an outstanding warrant and controlled substance addiction. She poses a risk of 11 danger due to criminal history, the nature of the offense, and substance abuse history.

12 (5) There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will
13 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger
14 to other persons or the community.

15 It is therefore ORDERED:

16 (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the 17 Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent
18 practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody
19 pending appeal;

20 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 21 counsel;

22 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 23 Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is 24 confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of 25 an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

26 (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States

Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 17th day of June, 2005.

Mary Alice Theiler
United States Magistrate Judge
